

Document Retention and Destruction Policy

Adopted January 8, 2008

As required by The Sarbanes-Oxley Act, the Stable Value Investment Association has adopted the following policy on the retention and destruction of documents related to Association business and records.

Nonprofit organizations should have a written, mandatory document retention and periodic destruction policy. Policies such as this will eliminate accidental or innocent destruction. In addition, it is important for administrative personnel to know the length of time records should be retained to be in compliance.

The following table lists SVIA's policies regarding document retention and destruction.

SVIA's Document Retention and Destruction Policy was adapted from NCNA's policy.

The National Council of Nonprofit Associations (NCNA) is the network of state and regional nonprofit associations serving over 22,000 members in 46 states and the District of Columbia. NCNA links local organizations to a national audience through state associations and helps small and mid-sized nonprofits: manage and lead more effectively; collaborate and exchange solutions; save money through group buying opportunities; engage in critical policy issues affecting the sector; and achieve greater impact in their communities.
